J. C. Paxson will be a candidate for nomination as Republican candidate for Prosecuting Attorney—at the August Primary. Mr. Paxson is well known throughout the county and has an enviable reputation as an attorney and lawyer.

Hon. C. L. Allen of Fayette will be a candidate for nomination for Clerk of Courts on the Republican ticket at the primary election next August. He has the confidence and esteem of the entire county as a soldier and as a man whose ability and integrity have been proven.

Hanson & Bressler the feed store men have moved into their new quarters in the building formerly occupied by Gorchuch and Clark. The building has been remodeled and a fine new front added. Of course this means bigger and better business for Hanson & Bressler.

On Friday evening, April 10th, in the Wauseon C. T. U. Hall a class of young people will contest for a silver oratorical medal. Some good music. No admission will be charged at the door, but ice cream and cake will be served to go towards paying expenses. A good attendance will be appreciated.

A. L. Russell of Gorham died very suddenly last Friday morning. Mr. Russell was well known throughout the county and was highly esteemed by those who knew him. Funeral services were held at his home near Fayette on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Russell leaves his wife, one son and three daughters.

The special meetings now being held each evening at the Baptist church are deepening in interest. All who have followed Rev. J. W. Leisner through the Bible expositions have been greatly enriched in spiritual knowledge. Next Sunday Mr. Russell will be the last day he will be with us and all who can should make an effort to hear him.

Wooster Academy will furnish Public school teachers of Ohio with an opportunity to conform with the new law which requires every grade and elementary teacher normal training after Jan. 1, 1915, by conducting a summer school which meets all the legal requirements and more. The school will open June 22nd and continue to August 14th. Teachers who desire to take advantage of this opportunity should write the Principal of Wooster Academy, Wooster, Ohio.

JUDGE E. S. MATTHIAS. The following clipping from the Van Wert Daily Times would indicate Judge E. S. Matthias who is at present residing in this city, is a candidate of the Third Judicial district.

Primary for nomination as Judge of the Supreme Court. The Van Wert Times is a Democratic paper and Judge Matthias is an earnest Republican in politics—but Judge stands head and shoulders above party prejudice. He is a man of high character and high ability so far above the average that his elevation to the bench of the highest court in the state would be a credit to the city and country, regardless of politics.—Van Wert Daily Times.

COURT DECISIONS. Since the adjournment of the grand jury on Wednesday of last week, Judge Scott has kept busy. Clinton S. Kimes, who had been indicted on two counts for obtaining money under false pretense from A. J. Fields and from G. B. Heise, pled guilty to both charges and was sentenced to 30 days in jail on each account and to pay the costs of prosecution; on Kim's faithful promise to make restitution to all those in Fulton county from whom he had taken money, the jail sentences were suspended pending the fulfillment of such promises and he was released from custody in Fulton county; but the sheriff from Paulding county arrested him immediately after he left the court house Kimes having to answer two indictments charging him with retaining money under false pretense in that county. Prosecuting Attorney Templeton has letters from Seneca county to the effect that Kimes had wanted in that county on a similar charge. Kimes collected $3.00 each from a number of persons in Fulton county for a business card in a business directory of the county, claiming to some at least that he was acting as the agent of the Fulton County Tribune in the matter. Other cases have been before the court on the criminal docket are those of Harley R. Butler who was arraigned on two indictments; abandonment and neglect to provide a home for his child, pled not guilty to both indictments. J. Q. Files was appointed to defend, and bonds fixed at $500 in each case; Fred H. Moore was arraigned on two indictments, arson and burning building with intent to produce insurance; pled not guilty in both cases; bonds fixed at $100 in each case; F. S. Ham appointed to assist prosecutor and J. Q. Files appointed to defend prisoners. W. H. Case charged with neglect to provide for child, pled not guilty—bond was continued.

Ernest Forest pled guilty to permitting minor to play pool and was fined $25 and costs. A number of cases on the civil docket were disposed of and action taken in a number more. The case of the Van Camp Company against Fulton county was partially heard and referred to W. H. Handy of Ottawa as referee. Court has been in session Monday, Wednesday and Thursday this week.

FRANK E. MEEK.

The citizens of Wauseon were shocked to learn last Friday morning that Mr. F. E. Meek had suddenly passed away. Mr. Meek has been in business in Wauseon for the past four years and has been active and prominent in public affairs. He was elected a member of the presidential Electoral College from Ohio in 1912; he has served as secretary and as president of the Wauseon business men's Club and as secretary of the Wauseon Athletic Company. Frank Eugene Meek was born near Stryker August 3rd, 1860, and at the time of his death he attained the age of 53 years, 7 months and 24 days. Twenty years of his life were spent in the service of the Rock Island Railway Co. in their Chicago office, he being general baggage agent for the company at the time of his withdrawal from their service. It was in Chicago in 1891 that he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth C. Coy of that city; to this union there were born two sons Milton and Eugene, the first departed this life when about five years of age; the second son, Eugene, remains with his mother to cherish the memory of the father and husband. Mr. Meek who was a member of Mrs. D. E. Backus of this city, came to Wauseon from Guyton, Oklahoma, where he was in the lumber business and purchased the Arcade Smokery from Mr. W. A. Richardson; entering as he did into public affairs of the town and always championing those movements which looked toward the increase of the business prosperity and progress of Wauseon, he won for himself a large circle of friends and he will be missed by the entire community.

Funeral services, conducted by the Defiance Commandery No. 108 Knights Templar, of which he was a member, were held from his late residence on Otto street on Monday afternoon, and were largely attended. The local Masonic organizations, Lousure Post No. 35 and the Associate members of that post attended the services in a body. The following relatives from out-of-town were present at the funeral services: Mr. John E. Meek and daughter, Cynthia, of Hutchinson, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Meek of Stryker; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Meek of Toledo; Mrs. Frank N. Olmsted and son, Raymond of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown of Stryker; Mr. and Mrs. Irene, of Detroit, Michigan; Mrs. F. Brown, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. W. Elliott of Toledo; Mr. George Meek Jr. of Port Clinton and Frank Meek of Lima, Ohio.

Interment was made in Wauseon cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends and neighbors for their many expressions of sympathy and kindly acts of helpfulness during our recent bereavement also to the Defiance Commandery No. 108 Knights Templar and other Masonic organizations as well as the G. A. R. members for their services and presence at the funeral of our husband and father.

STORY HOURS.

The story hours at the public library this coming Saturday will be conducted as last week, children of the Kindergarten and first primary age coming at two o'clock and those of the second and third grade age at three o'clock. Miss Florence Bayes will conduct the first story hour assisted by Mrs. C. A. Cole; while Miss Genevieve Simpson will conduct the second hour, assisted by Miss Herma McKibben.

Fifty children attended the story hours conducted last Saturday by Miss Emma Cummings and Miss Helen Paxson. The American Motherhood Magazine for the years 1913, '12, '11 and '10 has been given to the public library by Mrs. C. D. Greenleaf. These magazines have been given to the library that they may circulate among the homes and it is hoped that there will be many calls for them. They contain articles of special interest to parents. The library is indebted to Mrs. Marcus Lyon, Mrs. O. C. Standish and C. F. Greenough for the gift of magazines to help complete the reference list.

RESOLUTIONS

The Grim Messenger of Death having once more entered our portals and called from among us our esteemed brother, Norval D. Fouty. We realize that Wauseon Lodge No. 156 Knights of Pythias, has lost one of its most worthy members; one who will be missed not only by his brother Knights but by all who knew him in the vicinity in which he lived.

Resolved—that to the wife and son of our deceased brother, we offer our most sincere regrets and sympathy.

That our charter be draped for a period of 30 days; that these resolutions be inscribed upon the lodge records and a copy be furnished the bereaved family and published in the Wauseon papers.

W. W. Croninger. E. A. Reynolds. E. B. Robinson. Com.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas the hand of Death has removed from our midst our beloved brother, Norval D. Fouty, who was a charter member of this order, and who continued a true and faithful patron, and at the time of his death was its master, therefore, be it

Resolved—that we as an order have lost in him one whose memory we shall cherish and whose deeds of kindness and benevolence shall ever be held in grateful remembrance by us his brothers and sisters.

Resolved—that we sincerely sympathize with his family in their hour of sadness and commend them for comfort and consolation to the Supreme Master of the universe.

Resolved—that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family of our beloved brother and spread upon the records of the order and published in the county papers, also that the charter of the order be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

SILK.

The first silk was made 2600 B. C. by the wife of a Chinese emperor. Aristotle in 350 first mentions silk among the Greeks. The manufacture of silk was carried on in Sicily in the twelfth century, later spreading to Italy, Spain and the south of France. It was not manufactured in England before 1604.

"It is true I can't sing well," said the cat, that had just swallowed the canary, "but I have a good deal of music in me all the same."

DENVER TO WASHINGTON.

The Buffalo Bill Boy Scouts, twelve in number and ages ranging from 16 to 19 years reached Wauseon Thursday morning; the boys were walking from Denver Colorado, to Washington D. C. Scout master Wm. J. Smith told us that the boys are from Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Portland Maine, the group of boys joined the Buffalo Bill Wild West show last Spring and were with that organization until it broke up in Denver last July. From Denver they have hiked to Chicago leaving the last named city on March 19th and bearing a letter from Mayor Harrison to President Wilson. The boys have made their way by giving exhibitions and every mile of the distance has been covered by the boys marching. They bore letters from the mayors of the various towns through which they have passed testifying to their orderliness and good conduct. They gave a free exhibition in Wauseon at 7:30, consisting of wild sculling, gun drill and flag drill in which a huge American flag 30 by 40 feet in dimensions, in eight sections put together by the boys in one minute. The boys spent the night in Ives' Boy's Brotherhood Hall and started for Toledo Friday morning.
